New Contracts Manager to help SES deliver high standard projects

Andy Allen

Award winning building services firm, SES, is pleased to announce the appointment of a new Contracts Manager to its North Division – Andy Allen.

Andy will report to Operations Director, Lee Taylor in the Sheffield office, and will be responsible for ensuring that projects are delivered to the highest standards. Andy will be involved in managing a variety of projects in and around Sheffield including, Sheffield Hallam University and Sheffield Children and Adult Mental Health Service (CAMHS). He will also look after two of the unaffected BSF schools in Nottingham.

Jim Marner, Divisional Director for SES says, “Andy has a tough task ahead of him but I’m confident that his experience and focus will help us drive consistency across the business and deliver first class projects for our clients.”

Andy lives in Rotherham and is an avid supporter of Sheffield United.
