New SES Business Manager to ensure exemplary quality standards

Building services firm, SES, has appointed a new Business Manager within its North Division – Phillip Hill.

Based in the company's Sheffield office Phil, who joined SES on the 16th August 2010, will be responsible for promoting and developing business relationships with national and divisional clients in the South Yorkshire region.

Phil served his time as a mechanical engineer, working in all sectors of the industry, particularly the Retail sector. Phil progressed into management and over the next 10 years he worked for a specialist company designing and installing solar heating on a national level.

Most recently Phil worked as an Associate for the John Ryan Partnership before it was acquired by Silcock Dawson & Partners in 2006 and he became Regional Director.

Phil reports directly to Simon Preston, SES Divisional Business Manager for the North. He's delighted with Phil's appointment saying, "This is at a very exciting time for SES. I'm looking forward to working with Phil as we focus on delivering the next stage of our growth & development in the North Division.

"Phil will help to put into motion the ambitions we have for SES and capitalise on the many opportunities that lie ahead. He has important experience of working within a broad range of sectors, and has a clear focus on ensuring that our exemplary quality standards are upheld."

In his spare time Phil enjoys listening to music, the theatre, an interest in Italian cars and motor racing.
