Tony Byrne joins SES as Operations Director

Tony Byrne

SES is delighted to welcome Tony Byrne to its London & South East Division as Operations Director. Tony joins SES from a multi-services design and contracting background specialising in the Commercial, Education and Defence sectors nationwide.

Qualified as a Chartered Engineer, Tony is responsible for the operational management of SES project teams working on a variety of developments in the London & South East area, including the major Broomfield Hospital PFi project in Chelmsford.

Tony will be based in the London office and report directly to Divisional Director, Derek Joiner.

'The contracts we're currently working on require a meticulous individual with extensive business and contract experience,'" commented Derek Joiner.

"Throughout his career Tony has established a firm understanding of what is required to deliver high quality contracts that constantly exceed client's expectations by focusing on attention to detail."

Tony is married with two children and enjoys all sports, especially squash.
